

WHY DOES THE PULP & PAPER INDUSTRY CHOOSE MAR-DUSTRIAL?

A practice that dates back to the Han dynasty, pulp and paper manufacturing has come a long way since the days of macerating mulberry bark. Today, the process of converting wood chips and plant fibers into paper products uses chemical methods, as well as equipment that grind and mix.

Since 1986, Mar-Dustrial has supplied the paper and pulp industry with Falk gearbox parts that stand up to the challenges that come with wet environments, variable speeds, chemicals, high temperatures, heavy loads, and continuous operation.
